Understanding the IEP: A Guide for Families

Knowledge is power. Parents who understand how the school system works are more likely to successfully navigate it.

Join us to learn about Individual Education Plans (IEP's) in Ontario, the IEP process and how families and caregivers can best prepare and actively contribute to meetings about their child's education and future.

Learn about good communication strategies for working with educators, the impact of identifying long-term goals early, how to know when your plan has gone off course and how to get everyone back on track!
